The Pilot Tribune, Blair, Nebraska, July 9, 1939

FRANK BELLOWS, 54, DIES FRIDAY

Frank H. Bellows, 54, former general contractor and for ten years a well known resident of Blair was found dead in bed at his home, 503 Northwest Street, Friday morning. A heart attach was said responsible. A contractor for twenty-five years during which time he build many homes and public buildings, including the Blair Telephone building and the Blair municipal swimming pool. Mr. Bellows forced into inactivity eight years ago by ill health. Since that time he has been a semi-invalid.

Mr. Bellows was born July 14, 1884 in Omaha where his father, George L. Bellows, was a contractor. He was left an orphan at an early age, his mother dying when he was an infant and his father passing away a few years later. He received his early education in the Omaha schools residing with relatives and friends. On December 22, 1904 he was married in Blair to Miss Bessie Stricklett of this city and they moved to Omaha a short time later where Mr. Bellows was engaged in work, which led to his general contracting career. After remaining in Omaha a few years they moved to Walthill where they resided until coming to Blair in 1930. At Walthill Mr. Bellows was a member of the Methodist church, Odd Fellows Lodge and the Board of Education.

Mr. Bellows is survived by his wife, Bessie; two sons, Vernon F. and Donald Bellows of Blair; three daughters, Mrs. Mildred TeSelle of Grant, Mrs. Frances Elwell of Grant and Bonnie Jean at home. There were seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church at 4 p.m. Sunday. The Rev. Ralph P. Rasmussen of the church and the Rev. Mr. Richman of Aurora officiating. Interment followed in the Blair Cemetery.

Pallbearers were six friends from Walthill; C. A. Boughn, W. H. Toummer, George McMullen, Lester Jarvis, E. R. Riley and S. U.

Notes for Stanley Gordon Whitehorn:

FLOWEREE - Stanley Gordon Whitehorn, 85, a Floweree farmer, died of natural causes Tuesday at a Great Falls assisted-living facility.

Visitation is 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today at Croxford Funeral Home. His funeral is 3 p.m. Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in Great Falls, followed by a reception. Private family burial will take place at the family farm.

Stan is survived by his wife, Patsy Yvonne Jourdonais Whitehorn; daughters Becky Jourdonais and Vicki (Jerry) Peterson, both of Great Falls, and Wendy Whitehorn (David Brastrup) of Dutton; sons Earl Whitehorn of Floweree and Brian Whitehorn of Great Falls; sisters Elva Gessaman of Polson, and Iris Halvorson of Great Falls; a brother, Wayne Whitehorn of Floweree; and five grandchildren.

Stan was born Aug. 13, 1924, in Great Falls. He was raised on the family farm in Floweree, and graduated from Fort Benton High School.

He married Patsy Yvonne Jourdonais in Great Falls in 1956.

A lifelong farmer, Stan was raised on the farm his parents homesteaded in 1916, actively participating in farm activities into his 80s. He was a hardworking man, dutifully dedicated to the success of Whitehorn Farms, incorporated in 1961 with his brothers Wallace and Wayne. Stan would venture from the farm every 20 years or so. Shortly after high school, he and his sister Elva took a train trip to San Diego, meeting up with family to then travel on to Mexico before returning to the farm via Canada. To celebrate their 25th anniversary, he and Patsy had a fantasy vacation in Kauai, Hawaii. In 2006, they celebrated their 50th anniversary in Great Falls with family.

From the late 1950s until the mid-1970s, while his children were attending school there, Stan served on the school board of Benton Lake School, often as the chairman. He was also a Farm Bureau member for a number of years, and member of the Montana Grain Growers.

He loved creating things, whether a needed tool for the farm or furnishings for the house, he was a true handyman. He was also very interested in genealogy.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Wallace Whitehorn; sisters Virginia Weiderhold, Clara Walker and Bernice Skaw; and his parents, Chester and Georgia Whitehorn.

Memorials in his name are suggested to the Montana Veterans Memorial, P.O. Box 3524, Great Falls, MT 59403; or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Condolences may be posted online at www.croxfordfuneralhome.com and/or www.gftribune.com/obituaries.

Notes for Patsy Yvonne Jourdonais:

Patsy Yvonne (Jourdonais) Whitehorn, 81, died of a stroke Sunday, Dec. 18, at Peace Hospice.

Her funeral is 1:30 p.m. Thursday at First Presbyterian Church, with burial at the family farm. Croxford Funeral Home and Crematory is in charge of arrangements.

Patsy lived her dream life as a farmer's wife, relishing her roles as wife, mother, homemaker, cook, gardener, seamstress, and especially grandmother.

She was born Oct. 26, 1930, in Great Falls, Mont., to Fern and Lucian Jourdonais. Patsy graduated from GFHS in 1948 and attended MSU Bozeman, majoring in home economics. She married Dwight Ulrich in 1950, and they had three children together. When they divorced in 1955, Patsy returned to Great Falls, where she crossed paths with Stanley Whitehorn, "the kindest, most polite man" she ever met. They wed in 1956 and built their life and family together on Whitehorn Farms. This union blessed them with two more children.

Patsy was an active participant in their farming community north of Great Falls as a 4-H leader, election judge and member of the Portage Home Demonstration Club. As her nest emptied in the 1970s, she busied herself working at Discount Fabrics, followed by many years as the treasured receptionist at Skyline Veterinary Clinic. Her love of children and animals showed in the many needy and homeless pets she cared for over her lifetime, and in the dozens of handmade quilts she lovingly and anonymously donated to the children at the Mercy Home. She and Stanley made a once-in-a-lifetime 25th anniversary trip to Hawaii in 1981, one of the few times she was able to get Stan off the farm for a real vacation.

She is survived by her children, Brian Whitehorn of Bend, Ore., Dr. Becky Jourdonais and Vicki Peterson (Jerry), both of Great Falls, Dr. Wendy Whitehorn (David Brastrup) of Dutton and Earl Whitehorn (JoAnne) of the family farm near Floweree; a sister, Rae Letz of Phoenix; a brother, Jack Jourdonais (LaVerne) of Melissa, Texas; six grandchildren and one great-grandson; numerous nieces and nephews; and her precious kitties, Purrdy and Mimi.

Patsy was preceded in death by her parents; and her beloved husband Stanley.

Memorials may be made to Peace Hospice; The Mercy Home; or the Animal Foundation of Great Falls.

Condolences may be posted online at www.croxfordfuneralhome.com and/or www.gftribune.com/obituaries.
